

Printing QR code on Marriage Certificate

QR codes should be printed on all the health licenses and certificates issues by Health department for the verification of the said document.

After the scanning of the QR code, the details of that certificate / License will be displayed on the screen which can be verified with the hard copy available with the Applicant / License.

The QR code scanned report should also display the current status of the certificate / License.