

Chapter I

Introduction

The Ministry of Law and Justice (Legislative Department) has published The Right to Information Act 2005 (No. 22 of 2005) on 15th June 2005. It is an Act to provide for setting out the practical regime of Right to Information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority.

According to this Act, the various subject manuals are prepared. The object of these manuals is to provide information pertaining to the B.Y.L. Nair Charitable Hospital and Topiwala National Medical College, to the citizens who desire to have it. It is also useful for the staff of Nair Hospital to acquaint themselves with the working of the hospital through these manuals.

It is the sincere desire of the administration / organization to maintain standards of patient care as well as the teaching and education of the medical students.
