

CHAPTER – 1
INTRODUCTION

This hand book of “Right to information Act 2005” is created to facilitate the implementation of the act by giving information of the organization to the citizens.

The Objective of this hand book is to provided information to citizens and transparency of information.

All citizens shall have the right to information.

Information is collected from various Peripheral Hospitals.

The contact person in case somebody wants to get more information is the Medical superintendent or Chief M.os of peripheral Hospitals.

A person, who desires to obtain any information under this act shall make request in writing or through electronic means in English, Hindi or in the official language of the area in which the application is being made, accompanying such fee as may be prescribed to Medical Superintendent or Chief Medical Officer of the hospital. Specifying the particular information sought by him or her.