SCOPE OF WORK &
TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation

General conditions and Technical Specifications

[1.0] PREAMBLE : There are various pumping station under AE(M)WW-Eastern Suburbs section i.e. Surya Nagar Pumping Station, Sharma Garden Pumping Station, Kurla Kachara Cabin Pumping Station, Vikhroli Slum Pumping Station, Vikhroli Park Site Pumping Station, Kailash Nagar Pumping Station, Sangharsh Nagar Pumping Station, Shivaji Nagar Pumping Station, Shivchhatrapati Krida Mandal Pumping Station, MMRDA Pumping Station, Powai Pumping Station, Ghatkopar High Level Reservoir, Ghatkopar Low Level Reservoir, Trombay High Level Reservoir, Trombay Low Level Reservoir, Powai Low Level Reservoir, Powai High Level Reservoir-I, Powai High Level Reservoir-II, Bhandup Hill Reservoir, BUDP Reservoir etc. All these pumping stations supply the potable water to various wards of Eastern Suburbs. Water supply is given directly i.e by gravity at some locations & Water supply is given through pumping arrangement to high altitude areas. There are number of pumps installed with different capacity and head. These pumps are electrically driven, and operation of each pump is controlled through MCC panel. The total connected load at every pumping station is different i.e. minimum 100 KW. For operation and protection of these pumps and other electrical equipment, there are various types of panels, DB boards, Scada room panel and switches e.g. Auto power factor control panel, 415 V electrical power panel. The various L.T power panels (415 V Panel) are installed for providing the electrical power for the pump sets as well as for various electrical accessories. These electrical control panels are very sensitive. Expensive electrical accessories are installed in the electrical panels itself. Due to high electrical load, possibility of catching fire mainly due to heating and electrical short circuits through incoming / outgoing cables, bus-bar joints, control circuit, power & control cables in cable bays of switchgear connections is occurring. This may leads to damaging control panels & total loss of electrical installations, assets & property and fatal accidents to operative staff on duty. Also, as these electrical panels are vital parts of pumping station. There are Electro-chlorination plants installed at reservoirs for chlorination process of potable water for maintain required PPM of water, The interruption in electric supply due to any incident hampers the water supply to huge areas of Eastern Suburbs water network. Hence microengineering adhesive needs to be installed for safety protections.

There are various staff quarters, where several BMC staff resides, there has been several occasion where due to short circuit and fire the routine electric supply and functioning has got hampered and the meter cabins and surroundings have got burnt. The security has also suggested for protective measurers in particular for these areas.

In view of above, it is absolutely necessary to provide effective, reliable and prompt fire detection & suppression system for stopping and controlling fire without human intervention. There are two systems which are proposed in which one of the system is provided with CO₂ gas fire suppression system designed to provide a uniform concentration within the electrical panels. The heat detection tube which itself is sensitive is installed in the control panels. As soon as fire takes place, the heat detection tube senses the fire & get automatically ruptured and the pressurized CO₂ gas immediately gets activated at the source of fire and further cools down the complete electrical panel. This system is proved to be useful reliable and cost effective. This is very effective method to use against fire and proven worldwide. The other system is miniature self-contained microengineering adhesive made of composite material, it is designed using nano-technology with stored microcapsules which has fire extinguishing agent. It is mainly used in indoor application, it has gas composed of chemical FK5112 perfluoro. The microengineering adhesive which itself is sensitive is installed in the Db's and other electrical components. As soon as fire takes place, the adhesive acts mainly for physical cooling, removing heat from the flame. The adhesive senses the fire & get automatically activated and suppresses the fire at source.

The above formulae will be replaced by the formulae in Annexure-I as and when mentioned in special conditions of contract.
